Arrangements having been made under which Mails for London arriving at Sucz from China by Private Ships will be forwarded to destination via Brindisi, it is hereby notified that the rates of postage, which must be paid in advance, on correspondence addressed to the United Kingdom so forwarded, will be as follows, viz.:--For Letters.....24 cents per half ounce given notice to the General Post Office in London that articles of Jewellery received in that Colony are chargeable with Customs Duties, the undersigned considers it necessary to make this Regulation known to the Public, and to state that any letters or packets containing such articles sent through the Post are liable, with their contents, to be forfeited. Many boxes of letters age received at the Post Office not sealed, that is to say, the box is fastened with sealing wax, but there is no impression of a seed. The attention of boxholders is called to the necessity of carefully scaling such boxes with. some recognisable seal, and of sending a Obitbook or receipt with them. The omission of the latter precaution leaves a doubt as to weather the contents of the box ever reached the Post Office; the omission of the former, as to whether part of them might not have been abstructed for the sake of the Postage Stamps.

There is a common belief in the existence of a Parcel Post by which such articles as Fans, Curios, Silk-Dresses, Scarves, Jewellery, Artificial Teeth, &c., can be forwarded at low rates. It cannot be too distinctly stated that such, things can only be sent as Letters, and the very cheapest rate is 12 cents per half onnce by Private Steamer. All such packages should be Registered (8 cents). If the Parcel be heavy it oan be sent through one of the Parcel Expresses conducted by Mesers. LANE, CRAWFORD, or Mr. W. H. There are translations of some of Shakes: pere's plays performed; the two most fraquently witnessed are Hamlet and King Lears the class of shopkeepers, who may be called the people in Russia, for the others are mere appreciated, and Shakespeare is reverenced by most of them nearly as much as in England, although they have read his work only in a translation; perhaps at some future time his lotty thoughts will have a good offect upon their opinions and conduct. When I was at Twer I saw the part of Hamlet exceedingly well performed by a young actor: and the audience, even in this small provindial town, seemed thoroughly to appreciate it. I once went to a shop in St. Petersburg. when I remarked to a lady who was with me, "that the proprietor much resembled the portraits of Shakespeare:" although the remark was made in French, the shopkeeper understood it, and to my astonishment made me a low bow and thanked me. It was only a small fruitshop, and we neither of us had the least idea that he had ever heard the poet's name. The Englishwoman in Russia.
